Dedication

We, the Senior Class of '74, dedicate this thirtieth volume of the yearbook to the Alumni Association of Sacred Heart High School. Founded December 28, 1941, this association has given 33 years of moral and financial support to the school. Our most recent acquisition from the Alumni Association is the Tiger Field House pictured below. The work of the members of the Alumni Association is an inspiration to all of us as we witness their labor of love in behalf of their Alma Mater.

“A friend should be one in whose understanding and virtue we can equally confide, and whose opinion we can value at once for its justness and its sincerity.

He who has made the acquisition of a judicious and sympathizing friend, may be said to have doubled his mental resources.”

“If we work upon marble, it will perish; if on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, and imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellow-men, we engrave on those tablets something that will brighten to all eternity.”

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

TO THE 1974 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES:

As you complete your high school education, you will discover that the real journey of your lives has just begun. And as you travel the paths you have chosen, I feel that experience will teach you that life is not a book with old age as a last chapter, but rather a series of short stories, each with its own unfolding. Through each new adventure on the way I know that you will learn that true happiness comes to those who give fully of themselves to what they believe in and to their fellowman.

We live in a time that offers unparalleled opportunities for each individual and for our nation. And I am confident that you will take hold of these opportunities to achieve greater good for yourselves and for our country.

Where there is life, there is hope; and in you -- the graduates of our high schools -- there is the fullness of life. Your fellow citizens place the fullness of their hope in you. And on their behalf I wish you every success for the future.

“Friendship improves happiness, and abates misery, by doubling our joy, and dividing our grief.”

— Addison

"It is great to have friends when one is young, but indeed it is still more so when you are getting old. When we are young, friends are, like everything else, a matter of course. In the old days we know what it means to have them."

— Edvard Grieg
